(SEB)
INFORMATION SHEET

The objective of the Self -Employment Benefit (SEB) is to help selected unemployed individuals start their own businesses.

General Information

Before CBDC Hants-Kings can assess your application, it will be necessary for you to receive a needs determination and develop a Return-to-Work-Action Plan (RTWAP) with a case manager. If you do not currently have an Employment Counselor/Case Manager to develop your RTWAP, contact CBDC Hants-Kings, your local ENS, or your local Service Canada office who can advise you on where to receive this service.

Specific documentation must accompany this application. Please see Section E of the application form for a complete list.

After you have developed your business idea, your application for Self-Employment must be approved by CBDC Hants-Kings and a Self-Employment Grant Agreement signed with CBDC Hants-Kings before you continue to work on your business plan. You will not be approved for the Self-Employment Benefit if you have started your business prior to making this application.

Personal Investment

Under the SEB program, the eligible participant must provide evidence of a personal investment. This personal investment is over and above the financial assistance and additional costs.

You will be required to demonstrate that you will contribute 25% in personal investment toward the business.

Example: The agreement is to provide financial assistance for a total amount of $13,250 for the duration of participation. The participant must contribute a personal investment of $3,313 (equal to 25%) in cash or in kind contribution.

The following examples could be considered as proof of equity:

1. A bank statement showing at least the minimum investment for the proposed venture;
2. Evidence of a loan or a line of credit;
3. Proof of ownership of equipment or materials that will assist you in your business.

Eligibility

Applicants must be legally entitled to work in Canada.

You must use this application form to make your request for financial assistance under the Self-Employment Benefit. The date your completed application is received by CBDC Hants-Kings is the date when you are considered to have requested assistance for the purpose of determining whether you qualify as an insured participant.

To be eligible for the Self-Employment Benefit, a person must meet the definition of an insured participant under Section 58 of the EI Act.

An “insured participant” is defined in the Act as a person who requests assistance under an employment benefit and, when requesting that assistance, is an unemployed person

- (a) For whom a benefit period is established under the Act or whose benefit period has ended within the previous 36 months; or
- (b) For whom a benefit period has been established in the previous 60 months and who
 - i. Was paid special benefits under section 22 (maternity) or 23 (parental) during the benefit period,
 - ii. Subsequently withdrew from active participation in the labour force to care for one or more of their newborn children or one or more children placed with them for the purpose of adoption, and
 - iii. Is seeking to re-enter the labour force.

If you are working, do not quit your job, as this may affect your eligibility for assistance under the Self-Employment Benefit.

Income Tax:

Financial assistance paid to insured participants is included as income for tax purposes. Tax will be deducted at source from financial assistance payable to insured participants with the exception of dependent care costs and tuition including tuition for Adult Basic Education which is no longer subject to tax. In most cases you will be able to claim the tuition tax credit for tuition that you pay in order to take a course. However, you will not be able to do so if the training institution you attend is not eligible to issue tuition receipts for purposes of the tuition tax credit. You should check with any potential training institutions to make sure it is eligible to issue these receipts (T2202). If the institution is not eligible, you should know that you will not be able to reduce the income tax you have to pay on the money you receive for tuition costs by means of the tuition tax credit. Education tax credits are now available to individuals who receive federal assistance to attend school.
